Grandeur and space in a dress-circle setting

Commanding spectacular street appeal on a dress-circle, wide fronted 1,144sqm, this landmark home combines a grand and elegant aesthetic with substantial proportions and gracious comfort. Immediately captivating with its stunning facade, it welcomes into a marble foyer with a sweeping curved staircase. Perfect for entertaining, it includes a grand dining room and vast upper level family room with deck whilst banks of sliders open to the substantial alfresco terraces that overlook the pool. High ceilings and expanses of windows stream in the natural light. Designed for the large family to live in harmony, it includes a large home office with library wall and five generous bedrooms with space for the in-laws. From its distinguished setting, the residence is an easy stroll to the bus, St Ives Public School and St Ives High School.
