

141 Pentecost Avenue Turramurra, NSW

5 bed | 3 bath | 2 car

Prestige family entertainer of quality, size and style

Impressive in both its gracious proportions and elegant contemporary style, this stately residence represents an exceptionally rare opportunity to acquire a secluded family estate in a premier Turramurra enclave. This superb full-brick art deco home has been beautifully renovated throughout for an exceptional living experience with a substantial two-level floorplan and spaces for all types of entertaining. Very few properties can offer so much in terms of size, charm and lifestyle, all enhanced by an exclusive east-side address that's strolling distance to the train station, bus services, local village shops and Pymble Public School.

- Nestled onto a 959sqm landholding with rolling park-like grounds
- A flowing layout featuring a multitude of formal and casual spaces
- Sheltered entertainment deck and private easycare grassed garden
- Quality gourmet kitchen that enjoys a great outlook over the backyard
- Living rooms and alfresco spaces overlook a luxurious swimming pool
- Four upstairs bedrooms plus a downstairs office/fifth bedroom
- King-sized upstairs master with walk-in, ensuite and private balcony
- Secure parking from multiple cars including a double lock-up garage
- Close to PLC, Masada, Knox Grammar and Abbotsleigh schools
- Walking distance to local shops

Ross Mundy

m: 0451 373 641

t: 02 9061 3199

e:

rossm@themarshallgroup.com.au