Full Brick Family Home

This well presented full brick period home has an array of carefully conceived and executed renovations to create a private haven that's eminently suited to family life. With electric gates and fully fenced from the street, it rests on a sensational north facing block with delightful child-friendly back lawns and gardens.

The home extends over a spacious single level introduced by classical lines and superb original joinery that adds character and appeal. The living room is warmed by a gas fireplace and the dining large enough to entertain adjoined by the family sized modern kitchen.

The original lock up garage provides flexibility having been converted to a wonderful hangout retreat for the teens or a home office space.

Accommodation Features:
